

Birth : Oct.7, 1928.

Primary and secondary studies : Ecoles des Frères des Ecoles Chrésiennes.

Two years of Law studies.

Medical Degree, 1956, Faculté Française de Médecine, St Joseph University..

Specialization in Diagnostic Radiology at the Institut Français de Radiologie, Hôtel-Dieu de France, Beirut (Pr. Paul Ponthus).

Founder of the department of Medical Imaging of Rizk Hospital in 1959.

Multiple training periods in France and in Germany.

Fellowship in Neuro-radiology in 1972 at the Massachussets General Hospital (Prof. Juan Taveras).

Retirement in 2006.

Co-founder (with Dr Fawzi Adaimi) in the early eighties, and director of programs for ten years, of the School of X-Ray Technologists, at the Notre-Dame du Liban Hospital in Jounieh. (School now a dependence of the Lebanese German University).

Collector since about fifty years of antique x-ray tubes and accessories, going as far back as the years of their discovery, late in the 19th Century.

Family : Married in 1960 to Gisèle Roumy, MD

Nagib, son, 1962, PhD Electrical Engineering, Columbia University, presently Senior Engineer at INTEL, Santa Clara, California.

Anne-Marie, 1964, daughter, PhD Economics, University of Montreal, working with the Canadian Government, Ministry of Immigration.

Danielle, 1965, daughter, Political Science degree, St. Joseph University, Beirut.

Master in French Literature (USA). Real Estate business in Houston, Texas.

Particular interests : Electronics, Photography, Applied physics, Religions of the World,
Hiking, Speleology, Amateur Radio (Call-sign: OD5IZ)

Member of the British Society for the History of Radiology

Medal : Chevalier de l'Ordre de la Santé Publique, France